Nature Landscapes 09/05 - 09/29

by Vincent James & Andri Yasinsky

Vincent James exhibits a small collection of pictures captured from some of his favorite locations. As a musician, he composes his images like songs. Growing up in Ukraine, Andri Yasinsky was exposed to the beauty of the Crimean and the Carpathian mountains. Disappearing wilderness is his major theme.

Artist reception: Friday, September 13th from 5 to 8pm

Delicate Dichotomy 10/02 - 10/31

by Natalie Jauregui Ortiz & Eunice Liu

Eunice Liu marries traditional mark-making with digital strategies to reflect on the duality in indigenous Chinese traditions between moral judgment and sensual-religious convention. Natalie Jauregui-Ortiz is a painter who creates stories of the human condition with a focus on the female experience.

Artist reception: Friday, October 11th from 5 to 8pm

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

Saturday Sept. 28th and Oct. 26th from 3 to 5pm

Come join us every last Saturday of the month for Children's Activities! We will be making ghost lollipops in September and will learn how to make glow in the dark slime for Halloween!

*Programs may be subject to change

LIGHTSPACE

CONTEMPLATIONS OF THE INFINITE

by Momo Yuntong Wu

Our new Lightspace exhibition introduces you to the work of Momo Yuntong Wu. This artist's work explores the connection between ideas that shape our understanding of the scientific world and our psychological world. The installation Electrons (picture above) engages the audience to interact with the piece. Viewers are given the freedom to move the blocks on magnetic walls and create the patterns of their choice.

Artist reception: Friday, October 18th from 5 to 8pm

10/05/19 - 01/05/20

MUSEUM FREE DAY

Sunday Sept. 29th and Oct. 27th
